Physical Fitness Assessment

ONCE YOU HAVE BEEN ADMITTED INTO THE EMERGENCY MEDICAL RESPONDER PROGRAM, YOU WILL BE REQUIRED TO COMPLETE A PHYSICAL FITNESS ASSESSMENT AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MANITOBA.

Information will be sent out to enrolled EMR students prior to program start date regarding fitness testing registration and dates. The approximate cost for the fitness test is $140.00 and payable to the University of Manitoba upon registering for the fitness test.

The following is provided for information only:

Paramedic Physical Fitness Assessment

Policy and Procedure:

A Paramedicine Job Related Physical Fitness Assessment is done as part of the Criti Care EMS Emergency Medical Responder Program Enrolment. The testing is done by the University of Manitoba Faculty of Kinesiology and Recreation Management. All students enrolled in the EMR Program must complete the testing and return a copy of the completed testing certificate to Criti Care EMS within 90 days of starting the EMR Program. The testing is done for counseling purposes related to suitability for a career in Paramedicine. The university will provide counseling in any tested area that candidate has not demonstrated satisfactory performance in to allow the candidate to improve their abilities.

Additional Information:

Please go to: <https://umanitoba.ca/community/sport-recreation/recreation-services/occupational-testing> for additional information about the physical testing.
